GRADUATING

Jamal Williams and Richard Clayton soak up as much knowledge as they can during Ms. Wood's Consumer Math class.

Levelle Williams and Tyrone Trotter show off their good looks for the photographer as they prepare to go to class.

Mr. Watson, Mateen Satterfield, Heidi Siler and Josh Robitow take a break during Geometry class.

CLASS OF 1997

Mr. Pantas is caught in action as he makes his Senior Government class smile with his sense of humor.

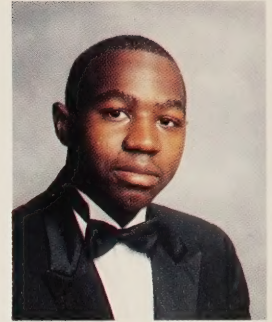

Sophisticated

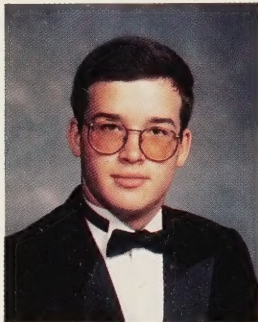

Robert Garland is the essence of sophistication as he listens to a presentation in marketing class.

Success

Success means many things in life. To some, it's fame and wealth. To others, it means happiness and blessings of good health. To all of us, it measures possessions gained and won. To parents, it's a life that's filled with worth while things they've done. But no matter how you measure it, one thing is always true, success is what you make it, and it's waiting for you.

Kerrica Boone '97

Missy Banks sits back and relaxes while she enjoys the sounds of the band.

Seniors always show the freshman class how it's done,

Lasting Memories

Although she has an assignment to do, Aminah Boone takes time for a break.

Seniors (From left to right) Keana Hughes, Carla Cumbo, and Jami Simpkins always show how much they enjoy our pep rallies.

Class of 1997

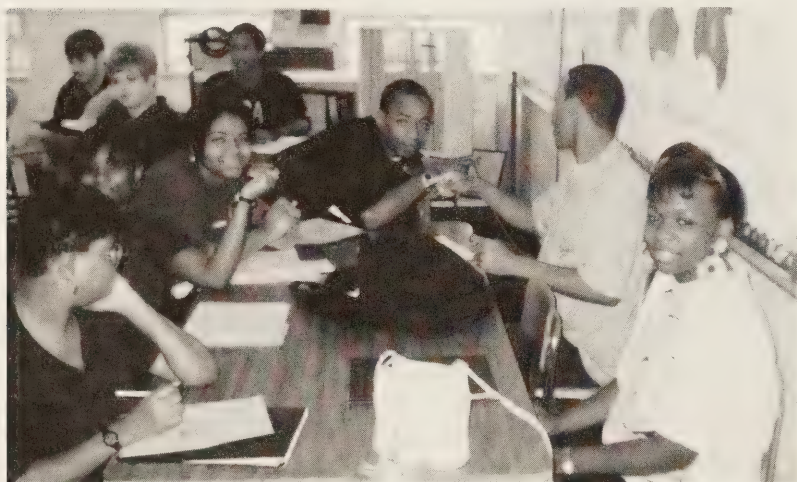

Moments that will never be forgotten

Seniors, Tim Forbes, Oren McClain, Tracey Epps, and Sandie Bazemore smile knowingly as they realize the unit on Chaucer will soon be over.

Leonard Barraugh takes time to stop by the library to check out a book for his term paper.

These seniors are showing how much fun marketing is and how they enjoy it. (left to right) Tawanda Mills, Korteshia Burden, Carl Hylton, Darren Robinson, and Latoya Dwight.

What's up ya'll? What's it gonna be? It's Kim Fields on the line with our homie Al B.!

If walls could talk, they would tell you things you've probably never heard before.

*Things you've never known about...
And also things you shouldn't doubt.*

These walls would speak of that good old Greyhound pride...

*That Greyhound spirit that will never die.
Good times and bad times both bring us joy. Long days of hard work all worth so much more. These walls are old but strong indeed. They'd tell you so much about what you'll need ...*

Norcom's Walls resound with Homecoming Spirit!

Feeling the anticipation and the excitement of Homecoming, especially the last homecoming in the Turnpike Road facility, everyone was filled with enthusiasm. All activities were "The Bomb"! Everyone, faculty and staff, the Versatile Marching 100, our spirited cheerleaders, and a local popular Dee Jay, Al. B. Sylk from radio station 103 JAMZ, rocked with spirit.

Hey Macarena!!!! Adventuresome faculty members show school spirit by dancing to the popular song of the moment!

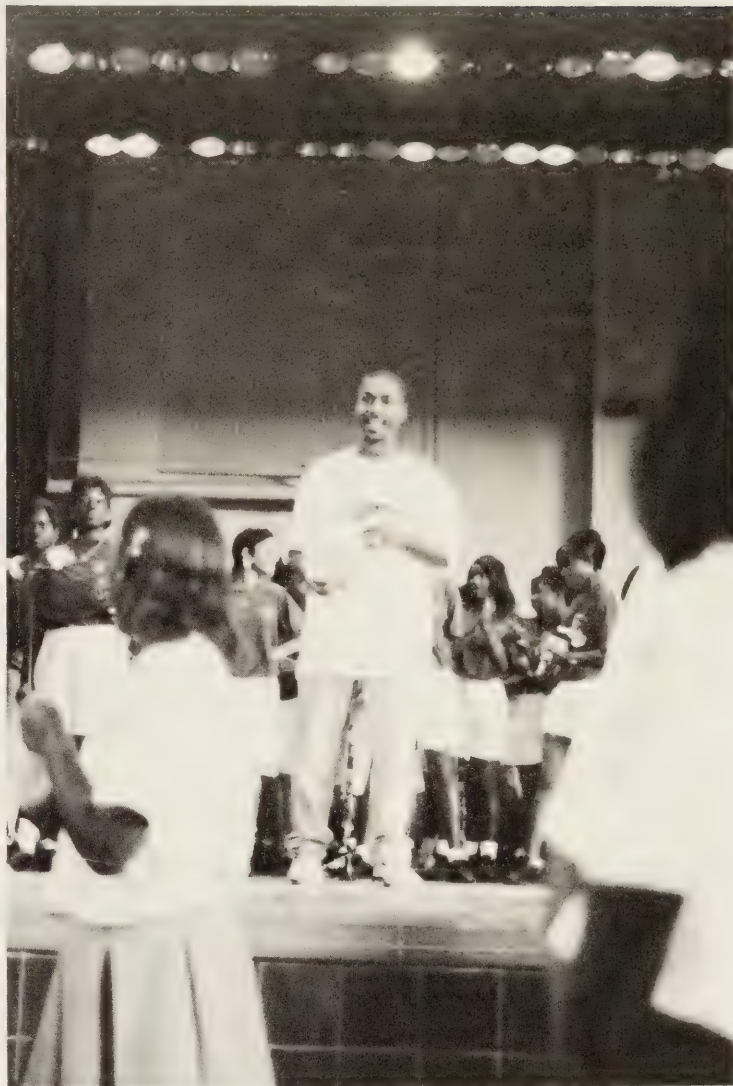

Future Norcomites Fianna Z. Bell, Flower girl, and William H. Harrison, III Crown bearer flash radiant smiles as they anticipate the beginning of the Homecoming assembly.

Homecoming night echoed the sounds of the Versatile Marching 100 Band. One drum major, Senior, Marcus Collins leads the group in an award-winning routine.

Mr. Walter Taylor, NHS principal and Miss Homecoming 1995-96, Miss Chara Lewis pose for the camera as they await the announcement of Miss Homecoming for 1996-97

We all need a little guidance sometimes.

If walls could talk, I think they would say that over the years I.C. Norcom's pride has gone down by the way some people disrespect themselves and everyone else around. So I think, if these walls could talk, they would say have respect for them, the people around you, and most of all yourself.

FACULTY AND STAFF

Mr. Borick, Earth Science and Oceanography teacher and long time staff member at Norcom enjoys the interaction with students.

Mrs. Gunter, far right, has been an educator for twenty-eight years. She has spent twenty-five years here in Portsmouth, and two years in Accomack County and one in Chesapeake. Her duties here at Norcom include that of Magnet Facilitator.

Mrs. Haywood, below, has been a librarian here at Norcom for nine years, and has been an educator for thirty years. She says in that time she has seen many changes here at Norcom. She is also a Norcom Alumnae and author.

Mr. Pantas, a 12th grade government teacher, epitomizes school spirit by dressing up in his 70's costume during Homecoming Spirit Week.

Mrs. Zachos, a teacher for seventeen years, has been here at Norcom for ten years. A Social Studies and Dual Enrollment teacher, she is pictured here with Mrs. Key and Mrs. Clifford.

Mrs. London, an English and Journalism teacher, facilitates a Higher Learning workshop for her co-workers.

The Walls Shout Out About Our New Principal

If the walls at I. C. Norcom would talk... They would speak of the change in administration. They would speak of a Dynamic, Youthful, Innovative, Gentleman by the name of Walter Taylor, Jr.

Imagine the anxiety when the announcement was made that there would be changes made in the top administrative position. What would happen to our beloved I.C. Norcom? Would there be changes in the tradition? What's really ahead for our school?

But, once Mr. Taylor took the helm, the walls shouted with enthusiasm over the goals and dreams, and future plans for Dear Ole NHS. Student reactions changed. Suddenly they found themselves in the middle of a totally new experience. The tradition remains the same, but the walls squeal with delight over what's ahead. Our dynamic new leader exudes enthusiasm, determination, and a willingness to help I.C. Norcom remains in the forefront as a premier school.

SENIOR MEMORIES

No One Knows the Hour

No one knows the hour
but the day is drawing near
The last days of walking the halls of Norcom are becoming very clear

We're going out into the world
going our separate ways Everybody should be certain that these are our last days

One may even ask "If walls could talk,
What would they say?"
They'd say that we are ready for the world or at least that's what we pray

We've had the finest education and the right amount of time to grow
We should all be able to make it and spread to others what we know

Ask yourself "Am I sure I'm ready to spread what's in me?"
Your answer should be Yes, with pride,
so you may live happy and free

We should treasure these day because they are the very last
And pretty soon we can look back at these days as times of the past

So stroll the halls of Norcom and be very proud as you walk
Because you would want something good said about you
If These Great Walls Could Talk

Tennis

Norcom's Tennis Team is perhaps one of the most determined athletic groups at NHS. Dedicated team members such as Tim Forbes, Leonard Barraugh, and James Hardy, continue the tradition of winning as many matches as they played. This small band of men smash! Net play for love, strive for match point. Senior, Leonard Barraugh, Team Captain believes that this is perhaps one of the best seasons the team has had. "We're in a new district and a harder district, but since we're more experienced Matthew also agrees with Leonard that the season is worth the sweat, blood, and tears that the group has put into the season. Other team members are Senior, Timothy Forbes, and Sophomore, James Hardy.

Tim strikes an impressive pose as he prepares to return a ball.

Leonard delicately balances on his toes as he returns a volley!

"THE ECHOES OF THESE Halls":
IF WALLS COULD ONLY TALK

The Maroon and Gray, boast Great Tradition we're told,
Whose wisdom we gain, as our destiny unfolds.

The epitome of knowledge,
should beckon our success,
Within these four years, most surely we'll test.

As freshmen, we were but strangers
to your sacred walls,
The last class, whose depart shall echo these halls.

If Walls Could Talk

*I is for the integrity that every student holds.
 F is for the future, a place that know one knows.*

*W is for the hard work that is done to become the best.
 A is for all the times we never settled for less.
 L is for the love that is consumed inside these walls.
 L is for the long journey, when we leave these halls.
 S is for the success that we have had in the past.*

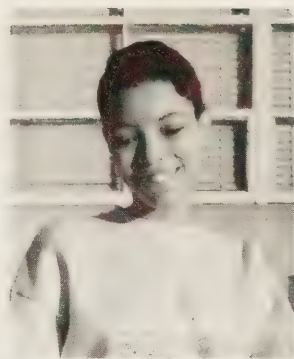

*C is for the classes that prepare us for the world.
 O is for the outstanding achievements from boys and from girls.
 U is for the utmost respect given and also received.
 L is for lots of goals that we all have achieved.
 D is for the days that are remembered; the one's that went by fast.*

*T is for the times we've shared and hoped that they will last.
 A is for alma mater that we love to sing.
 L is for the laughter that makes these halls ring.
 K is for the different kinds of people that we are.*

And this is what the walls would say if only they could talk.

LIFE

LIFE IS FULFILLED WITH EVERYTHING YOU DESIRE IT TO BE. LIFE. PEOPLE, ANIMALS IN NATURE, IT'S ALL LIFE. LIFE. SOMETIMES IT MAKES ME WONDER, WILL THE NEXT TIME I BLINK BE IT? LIKE MAKES ME SCREAM. LIFE MAKES ME SMILE. LIFE IS SLOW LIKE THE RAGE OF A BLAZING FIRE. LIFE. LIFE IS LOVE. LOVE MAKES ME HAPPY. LOVE MAKES ME SAD. ALL OF THESE THINGS ARE LIFE. DO YOU WONDER THAT SOON YOU'LL HEAR THE THUNDER OF LIFE? LIFE IS RAIN. LIFE IS SNOW. LIFE. IT ALL COMES FROM ONE MAN. GOD! LIFE! I THANK GOD EVERYDAY FOR MY LIFE. LIFE! NEVER TAKE IT FOR GRANTED. LIFE. NEVER WISH YOU DIDN'T HAVE IT. LIFE. BECAUSE SOON YOU WILL NOT HAVE LIFE.

SHAWNTES MYLES
1979-1995

IN MEMORY OF SHAWNTES MICHELLE MYLES

SHAWNTES WAS LIKE AN ANGEL TO PEOPLE AROUND HER. EVEN IN HER TIMES OF PAIN, SHE WAS ALWAYS IN HER HIGHEST SPIRITS. THOUGH HER SICKNESS WON OVER HER PHYSICALLY, IT NEVER WON OVER HER SPIRITUALLY. SHE WAS ALWAYS THERE FOR EVERYONE, ESPECIALLY ME. SHE WON THE HEARTS OF EVERYONE WHO KNEW HER, AND HER GLOW WAS FELT EVEN BY THOSE WHO DIDN'T KNOW HER. EVEN THOUGH SHE IS NOT HERE WITH US PHYSICALLY, SHE WILL ALWAYS LIVE IN OUR HEARTS.

BY: NATALIE BROOKS

“If Walls Could Talk”

If the hallowed hallways of I. C. Norcom could talk, they would speak of the traditions of excellence that have echoed through the years. They would speak of the “Greyhound pride” that prevails from generation to generation. There would be a “shout-out” of Norcom’s finest alumni who have walked these halls with esteem and dignity, such names as Mayor James Holley, Judge Johnny Morrison, Delegate Kenneth Melvin, Senator Louise Lucas, Commonwealth Attorney Martin Bullock, Brigadier General Alouzo Short, Councilman Bernard D. Griffin, and past City Manager V. Wayne Orton. The worlds of science, entertainment, literature, and art have been enhanced by the many accomplishments of Dr. Floyd Atkins, Dr. Majorie Atkins, NASA Engineer Julian Earls, Cheryl Willis, Ruth Brown, Deborah Small, Robert Wynn Jackson, and Charles Harris. The walls of the gymnasium would herald the feats of Junius Kellogg, Preston Harts, Bruce & Chris Burns, Rudy Peele, Jimmy Morrison, Lawrence “Chicken Man” Harrell, Leon Thomas, and Antonio “Terry” Ricks, all coached by the incomparables: Horace Savage, “Sticky” Smith, and Joe Langston. The band and chorus rooms would “crescendo in syncopation” of praise of the mastery of directors Emery Fears, Melvin Lewis, and Kevin Davenport. The names of the alumni and students that crossed these thresholds, swayed to the beat of the Norcom Rock, cheered to the “Shoo Wally Wally,” and harmonized to the Alma Mater are far too numerous to name. If given the opportunity they would give a “shout out” to a true educator and visionary, Israel Charles Norcom, whose name has become an institution. The firm and consistent leadership of Principals W. E. Riddick, W. E. Waters, A. T. Edwards, Lyndell Wallace, Eugene Blair, Vernon Randall, Dr. Dwayne Jeter, and Walter Taylor will forever be held in high esteem by the faculty, staff, and students. Our teachers, the formidable force which encouraged, corrected, and continue to “set ideals high to make us all succeed” will forever remain with us as we leave these walls. “If walls could talk,” if we could just listen within our hearts, we will hear them say, “Continue for excellence, the legacy lives on....”

A Fond Farewell

Hearts Shall Ever Linger

*Farewell, dear alma mater,
Now we reach the open door;
We tread the mystic borderland
We never trod before;
And through the future far off years
Even to the better shore,
The tender touch of thy loving hands
Shall lead us evermore.
The Tender touch of thy loving hands
Shall lead us evermore.
Farewell, thy children say, farewell
With saddened tones and slow;
And though we turn our feet away
Our hearts shall never go,
But ever linger in thy train
To swell the joyous song
Of praises to thy loving name
That's with us all the day long,
Of praises to thy loving name
That's with us all the day long.*

The Yearbook Staff and Advisor wish to thank those diligent and wonderful people who helped put this yearbook together. There were many times when we went to these individuals with last minute requests, and they were granted. If walls could talk, they would personally thank the following people for all they contributed to make this Final Turnpike Road Edition Yearbook a reality.

Robert Mayo, Photographer
Nathan Dilday, Graphics
Mr. Bullock, Cover Design Advisor
Mr. Taylor, Graphic Designer, general supporter, cheerleader, and critic.
Mrs. Scales, Marketing teacher, financial supporter
Mrs. Buckley, Business Manager
Mr. Nixon, Graphic Artist
Mrs. Haywood, Historian and general supporter
Mrs. Sledge, Graphic Advisor and general supporter
Mrs. Hopkins, Advisor and general supporter
Mrs. Bolden, Typing Advisor
And finally, Mrs. Donna Darden, Office Manager, who gave her unfailing support in all our endeavors.

Thank you, thank you,

Mrs. Patricia London, Advisor
Sharmetra Reynolds, '97 Editor

Glory to God! I have seen my daughter, Sherilynn, and

To Our Darling Daughter,
Joi Antoinette Chisholm

God truly answered our prayers
when he gave us you.

You said that you would graduate with Honors, and you will.
You said that you would be an Eureka Deb,
and you are.
You said that you would be accepted to Hampton, and you were.
